

CASTLE LESLIE ESTATE

Nestled on 1,000 acres of undulating Irish countryside, dotted with ancient woodland and glittering lakes, Castle Leslie Estate is one of the last great Irish estates still in the hands of its founding family. Steeped in history and full of character and charm, it is the ultimate wedding destination.

Since the 1660s, the distinguished Leslie family have lived on the estate welcoming everyone from politicians to poets, all the time making their home into one of the finest luxury castle hotels in the country with over 1,000 acres of woodlands, lakes and a variety of accommodation and onsite activities.

At the heart of the estate, the magnificent castle, full of old world grandeur and character, is a complete respite from the outside world. The castle can accommodate wedding parties of up to 70 guests and for larger wedding parties, The Pavilion, which sits on the edge of Glaslough Lake, can accommodate up to 260 guests.

The Lodge is the social hub of the estate and brings locals and guests together in an atmosphere of conviviality and comfort. Wedding ceremonies can be performed in the picturesque surroundings of St. Salvador's Church on the estate which played host to one of Ireland's most famous weddings. In June 2002, Castle Leslie Estate hit centre stage when it welcomed the wedding of Paul McCartney and Heather Mills. Over 800 million people worldwide saw the event on TV which had a huge impact on the progression of Castle Leslie Estate and the border counties. Following significant investment and a major restoration programme over the last decade, the character and charm of the estate can only be felt, not described. Let your imagination run wild, believe in the best and immerse yourself in the magic of Castle Leslie Estate. You won't be disappointed...
