Driving Instructions from Belfast to Glaslough

- Take the M1 South, signposted the West/Dublin.
- Exit M1 at Junction 11 onto M12. Signposted for Craigavon/Portadown/Armagh.
- Exit M12 at Junction 2 onto A3.
- Continue on A3 for approx 15 miles to Armagh.
- Follow signs for A3/A28.
- Continue through Killylea A28.
- Continue forward entering Caledon.
- Turn left on to B45 signposted Monaghan.
- Pass through Middletown.
- Turn right.
- Continue forward onto R185.
- Turn left at signpost for Glaslough (R185). Travel on this road for approximately 5 minutes (please be advised that there are a number of farms along this road, where you can encounter cattle, sheep and machinery so please drive with caution – a number of poor bends are ahead).
- Continue to the village of Glaslough. Drive through the village to the gates of the Estate.

Guests checking into the Village Cottages or Old Stable Mews please check in at the Lodge

The Lodge is on the left when you drive through the gates and the car-park for The Lodge is to the right.

Those guests staying in The Castle should continue up the drive until they reach The Castle.
